Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you aren't able to cast your vote in person, you can have someone you trust cast your vote for you.

You can use this form to apply to vote by proxy if you are a member of the armed forces or a spouse or civil partner of someone who is.

Both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

A person can only by a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election or referendum.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

For more information, speak to your Unit Registration Officer or contact your local electoral registration office. Address details can be found at the back of this form.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

1. You must ask someone if they are willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
2. Fill in the proxy vote application form. If you are registered as a service voter you do not need support for your application.
3. Make sure you complete all sections of the form, even if you have already given the information on your service voter registration form and supply you date of birth and signature. You need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact the election registration office. You can find address details at the back of this form.
4. Return your form to the electoral registration office. You can find address details at the back of this form

When applying for a new proxy vote, you must return your proxy vote application form by 5pm, 6 working days before the poll.

The deadline for changing or cancelling an existing proxy, postal or postal proxy vote may vary depending on which country you live in. Please visit electoralcommission.org.uk/proxyvote for more information about deadlines.

If you miss the deadline for applying to vote by proxy you can still apply for an emergency proxy in a limited number of circumstances up until 5pm on polling day. Contact your electoral registration office in the area in which you have registered or are registering for advice. Address details can be found at the back of this form.

If you are not already registered to vote, you must register before applying for a proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote

Application to vote by proxy for a member of the armed forces

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote for you by post. The deadline for returning a postal vote application may vary depending on which country you live in. Please visit electoralcommission.org.uk/postalvote for more information about deadlines. Your proxy can contact the electoral registration office for more details and to request a further application form. Contact details can be found below.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You should tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate party or outcome.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote for you by post.

Privacy Statement

We collect information under the legal basis of a task carried out in the public interest, as set out in the Representation of the People Act 1983 and related regulations. We will look after personal information securely and follow data protection legislation.

If you opted-out of the open register we will only use the information you give us for electoral purposes, including matching it against other sources of data to support the electoral register. We will not give personal information to anyone else, unless we have to by law. The law requires us to share your information with candidates, political parties and campaigners for democratic engagement purposes and credit reference agencies to check your identity when you apply for credit.

If you have not opted-out of the open register your name and address can be bought by anyone and used for lots of purposes, including direct marketing.

The Electoral Registration Officer is the Controller. For further information relating to the processing of personal data you should refer to the privacy notice on our website www.saa.gov.uk/h-wi-vjb
