Application to change an existing proxy at a Scottish council election

Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you aren't able to cast your vote in person, you can have someone you trust cast your vote for you.

You can use this form to replace an existing proxy for a Scottish council election if they are unable to vote at the polling station on your behalf.

Both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election or referendum. Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

How do I apply to change my proxy?

1. To change your proxy, you must have an existing proxy arrangement. If your existing proxy is unable to vote on your behalf, you can use this form to change your proxy.
2. You must ask someone who is willing and capable to be your replacement proxy and vote on your behalf.
3. Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why your existing proxy is unable to vote in person on your behalf.
4. Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature. You need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact the electoral registration office. You can find address details at the back of this form.
5. Return your form to the electoral registration office. You can find address details at the back of this form.

You can apply to change your proxy until 5pm on the day of the poll.

If you have a long-term proxy arrangement, your new proxy will remain appointed for future elections unless you apply again to change or cancel your proxy.

You cannot change an existing proxy if voting by post on your behalf.

You must already be registered to vote, before applying for a proxy vote or to replace a proxy. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your new proxy must go to your polling station to vote.
- The elections team at your council will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.
- You should let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party or outcome.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote for you by post.
