Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you aren't able to cast your vote in person, you can have someone you trust cast your vote for you.

This form is designed for use if you cannot vote in person at your polling station because of your detention in prison and you are applying to vote by proxy (someone else voting on your behalf) in a particular election.

You can apply until 5pm on the day of the poll.

You must have been living in Scotland before your prison sentence and be serving a term of imprisonment of 12 months or less.

You will be eligible to vote in local council elections and Scottish Parliament elections. You cannot vote in elections to the UK Parliament. Both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election. Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

Another prisoner cannot be your proxy if they are also detained in prison on the date of the poll.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

1. You must ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
2. Fill in the emergency proxy vote application form.
3. Make sure all sections of the form are complete. You need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your local electoral registration office. You can find address details at the back of this form.
4. Return your form to your local electoral registration office for the address that you are registered to vote at. You can find address details at the back of this form and pre-paid addressed envelopes in the prison library. More information can be found at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter.

This form must arrive at your local electoral registration office before 5pm on the day of the poll.

You must already be registered to vote before applying for a proxy vote or emergency proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at gov.uk/register-to-vote

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf.
- You should tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidates and parties.
- The elections team at your council will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.
