Voting by post

You can use this form if you are registered to vote, or have applied to be registered, as a British citizen living overseas.

Overseas voters are only eligible to vote in UK Parliament elections.

You can apply to vote by post for a particular election, for a set period of time or for the maximum period of three years.

Your local electoral registration office will confirm the duration of your postal vote. When your postal vote expires you will need to apply for a new one to continue voting by post.

For more information on postal voting and other ways to apply, visit electoralcommission.org.uk/postalvote.

How do I apply to vote by post?

- Fill in the postal vote application form.
- Make sure you complete all required sections of the form and provide your date of birth and signature. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your local electoral registration office. Contact details can be found at the end of this form.
- If your application has missing or incorrect information, your local electoral registration office will contact you. You may need to provide supporting documents and it may take longer to process your application.
- Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find address details at the end of this form.

The deadline for returning your postal vote application is 5pm, 11 working days before the poll.

If you are not registered to vote, you must apply to register before applying for a postal vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at gov.uk/register-to-vote.

What happens after I have returned this form?

- Your local electoral registration office will confirm if your application has been accepted or rejected.
- When an election is going to be held, your ballot paper will be sent to you in the post.
For more information on the delivery of the postal ballot pack, you can contact the elections office at your local council.
- Your postal ballot pack will contain instructions for voting by post and returning your postal vote.
- Make sure you return your postal vote so that it arrives by the deadline, otherwise it will not be counted.
