4 Your date of birth and declaration

Declaration: I have asked the person I have named to be my proxy and confirm that they are willing and capable to be appointed to vote on my behalf. I cannot vote in person at the polling station because I am accompanying someone who will receive, or is likely to receive, medical care or treatment on the date of the poll.

To the best of my knowledge and belief, the details on this form are true and accurate.

I understand that to provide false information on this form is an offence, punishable on conviction by imprisonment of up to six months and/or a fine.

Date of birth: Please write your date of birth in the boxes below using black ink.

Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you cannot vote in person, you can have someone you trust vote on your behalf.

You can use this form to apply to vote by emergency proxy if you cannot vote in person because you are accompanying someone who will receive, or is likely to receive, medical care or treatment on the date of the poll. This applies only to a Scottish Parliament election.

To vote by proxy, both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

At a Scottish Parliament election, a person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people. Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

For more information, visit electoralcommission.org.uk/proxyvote.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- Ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the proxy vote application form. You will need someone to support your application.
- Make sure all required sections of the form are complete and provide your date of birth and signature. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your local electoral registration office. Contact details can be found at the end of this form.
- This form can only be used after 5pm, on the sixth working day before the poll.
- Your form must arrive at your local electoral registration office before 5pm, on the day of the poll.
- Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find their details at the bottom of this form.

You must already be registered to vote to apply for an emergency proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. If you are not registered, go to gov.uk/register-to-vote for information about registering to vote in future elections.

Who can support my application?

Your application must be supported by someone who is aged 16 years or over and knows you but is not related to you. The person must also be able to confirm that you cannot vote in person because you are acting as a medical companion to another person on the date of the poll and the reason why you were not able to make the application before 5pm, on the sixth working day before the date of the poll.

What happens after I have returned this form?

- Your local electoral registration office will confirm if your application has been accepted or rejected.
- Your local electoral registration office will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.
- You must tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate or party.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so.
