Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you cannot vote in person, you can have someone you trust vote on your behalf. You can use this form to apply to vote by proxy if you have a disability and cannot vote in person.

You can also use this form if you have been detained in a hospital under the civil sections of the Mental Health Act 1983 or the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003.

This form applies only in Scotland.

To vote by proxy, both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

The rules about who can be a proxy are different depending on the type of election you want to vote in:

For Scottish Parliament and council elections:

- A proxy can vote for close relatives and up to two other people at an election. Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

For UK Parliament elections:

- A proxy can vote for a maximum of 4 people. No more than 2 of those people can be domestic electors. Domestic electors are voters who are neither overseas voters nor service voters. UK Parliament elections include UK Parliamentary general elections, by-elections, and recall petitions.

For more information on proxy voting and other ways to apply, visit electoralcommission.org.uk/proxyvote.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- Ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you need to vote by proxy and may need a qualified person to support your application. See notes on page 8 for information on who can support your application.
- Make sure all required sections of the form are complete and provide your date of birth and signature. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your local electoral registration office. Contact details can be found at the end of this form.
- If your application has missing or incorrect information, your local electoral registration office will contact you. You may need to provide supporting documents and it may take longer to process your application.
- Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find address details at the bottom of this form.

When applying for a new proxy vote, you must return your application form by 5pm, 6 working days before the poll.

When changing or cancelling an existing postal, proxy or postal proxy vote, you must return your application form by 5pm, 11 working days before the poll.

If you are not registered to vote, you must apply to register before applying for a proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at gov.uk/register-to-vote.

What happens after I have returned this form?

- Your local electoral registration office will confirm if your application has been accepted or rejected.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You must let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party or outcome.
- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote on your behalf by post. They can apply to do this until 5pm, 11 working days before the poll. They can contact your local electoral registration office for more details and to request a postal vote application form. For contact details, go to electoralcommission.org.uk/voter.
- If you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote on your behalf by post.

Who can support my application?

If they are giving care or treating you for the disability your application can be supported by:

- a registered medical practitioner (includes dentist, optician, pharmacist, osteopath, chiropractor or psychologist)
- a registered nurse
- a registered health professional.

If they are giving care, treating you, or have arranged care or assistance in respect of the disability your application can be supported by:

- a registered social worker.

Alternatively your application can be supported by:

- the manager, or their authorised representative, at the registered hospital where you are being treated
- the person registered as running the residential care home you live in
- the warden of the premises you live in that are provided for people of pensionable age or disabled persons.

If you are registered blind by a local authority and your application is based on your blindness, you do not need to have your application supported. You must complete part 2B.

If you are in receipt of a benefit payment (listed below) because of the disability specified in the application, then you do not need to have your application supported. You must complete part 2C.

Benefit payments include:

- a higher rate of the mobility component of a disability living allowance
- the enhanced rate of the mobility component of the personal independence payment
- an armed forces independence payment

If you have been detained in hospital under the civil sections of the Mental Health Act 1983 or the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003, you must complete part 2D. Your application must be supported by:

- the manager of the registered hospital at which you are detained, or their authorised representative.
